STUDENT HOUSING BUSINESS.COM > News & Trends > Insider Perspectives

Last Updated (07/10/2014 14:12)

CA Student Living Breaks Ground In Gainesville, Fla.

CA Student Living is developing NEXT LEVEL Gainesville near the University of Florida.

Gainesville, Fla. — CA Student Living has broken ground on NEXT LEVEL GAINESVILLE with joint venture partner Fields Holdings. The property will contain approximately 170 apartments and about 600 bedrooms.

NEXT LEVEL will be a heavily amentized, urban-infill project with podium-level swimming pool, hot tub, fitness and tanning facilities and both private and group study lounges.

The fully furnished apartments will feature modern. open floor plans, stainless appliances, quartz counter tops, European cabinetry, flat-screen televisions and closet organizers. The project is designed by Holchauser Blatter Architects of Santa Barbara, Calif., which also designed CA/Field's projects ICON UCSB and ICON Gardens at UCSB in Santa Barbara.

The contractor is Beal Derkenne Construction (BDC), which has built numerous projects for CA including NEXT LEVEL TUCSON, opening in August near the University of Arizona.